

Web Design Internship

May 2021, Immediate need – We are looking to interview candidates right away, and they will start mid-May for the summer months. It is a paid internship and we will be flexible with hours. After proving your skills, the position can be remote and may be extended beyond the summer 2021.

Overview:

Simplified Nutrition Online is seeking an intern to assist in the creation, design, layout and coding, of a new website, blog way, social media and email blasts. Applicants will be required to provide links to sample demonstrations of web pages and content that he/she has created. Experience gained in the classroom and through personal application will be accepted. We are seeking students pursuing a Degree in Computer Science, Information Technology, Media/Digital Media Production, Communications, Engineering, or other related field.

Qualifications/Experience:

- Industry standards in website development and content accessibility
- Web development application packages such as Adobe Dreamweaver and other template-driven applications
- HTML, XML, scripting languages, and cross-platform web accessibility standards
- Experience in HTML5, CSS3, and responsive web design
- Experience working with relational database management tools
- Experience in Adobe InDesign, Illustrator, Photoshop and/or other common design and layout applications
- Must be extremely organized and detail oriented
- Must have excellent time management skills
- Must have ability to work independently as well as in partnership with team
- Candidates with experience and interest in online outreach and promotion on blogs, forums, and social networks will be preferred
- Candidates with photography experience and graphics development will be preferred

Education:

Seeking students pursuing a Degree in Computer Science, Media / Digital Media Production, Information Technology, Communications, Engineering, or other related field.

Our Company:

Simplified Nutrition Online is an entity of Simplified Software Development founded in 2009 in Pinellas County, Florida. Award-winning Simplified Nutrition Online provides long-term care and healthcare, educational, and corporate facilities the highest quality, most cost-effective solutions for managing residents'/students'/stakeholder's diets. With SNO's cloud-computing technology, users don't need expensive hardware or cumbersome software to guarantee the best food available.

For addition information regarding Simplified Nutrition Online, or to apply for this internship, please contact the Marketing Director at Vonnie.Coleman@SNOdm.com

Contact:

Vonnie Coleman

Marketing Director

Simplified Software Development

Vonnie.Coleman@SNOdm.com